

About Amber

BIO

Amber has nearly a decade of experience in government and a decade in the private sector. Amber currently works in a consulting role advising government leaders and finance officials across the nation for OpenGov, Inc. Immediately prior to joining OpenGov, Amber served as the Chief Budget Officer for Escambia County, Florida through the pandemic and Hurricane Sally. She also served as Senior Accountant with the City of Pensacola, Florida, where she was an integral part of one of the City's largest projects in history, the Vince J. Whibbs, Sr. Community Maritime Mark.

In her private sector experience, Amber spent most of her time as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for Studer Entertainment & Retail. During her time with Studer, she grew the portfolio of companies to include businesses in two states including the Pensacola Blue Wahoos and Beloit Sky Carp, the High-A and Double-A affiliates of the Miami Marlins, the Bodacious Shops, Bubba's Sweet Spot, 5-eleven Palafox, Bodacious Bookstore and the Studer Community Institute.

Amber is passionate about improving the quality of life of our great community. She is licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in Florida and holds a Master of Accountancy and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of West Florida.
